The subject property is presently valued as follows:

Parcel 29.02

LAND VALUE	IMPROVEMENT VALUE	TOTAL VALUE	ASSESSMENT
$335,500	$1,397,000	$1,732,500	$693,000

Parcel 32.21

LAND VALUE	IMPROVEMENT VALUE	TOTAL VALUE	ASSESSMENT

Parcel 82.01

LAND VALUE	IMPROVEMENT VALUE	TOTAL VALUE	ASSESSMENT
$220,000	$1,204,700	$1,424,700	$569,880

An appeal has been filed on behalf of the property owner with the State Board of Equalization. The undersigned administrative judge conducted a hearing in this matter on September 24, 2007 in Crossville, Tennessee. In attendance at the hearing were registered agent Larry Burks, Cumberland County Property Assessor's representative Mary Cox and J. R. Young, an appraiser with the Division of Property Assessments.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Subject property consists of three manufacturing/warehousing facilities located in Crossville, Tennessee which can briefly be described as follows:

Parcel	Age	Building Size	Land Size
29.02	1973-1995	86,130 square feet	6.1 acres
32.21	1977 & 1989	66,000 square feet	5 acres
82.01	2000	53,024 square feet	11 acres

Both parties relied exclusively on the sales comparison approach and contended subject properties should be valued as follows:

Parcel	Taxpayer's Contended Value	Assessor's Contended Value	Current Appraised Value
29.02	$1,003,560	$1,732,500	$1,732,500
32.21	$1,088,000	$1,566,400	$1,566,400
82.01	$1,007,456	$1,424,700	$1,424,700

For each property, Mr. Burks and Mr. Young introduced written analyses and testified concerning those analyses.

The basis of valuation as stated in Tennessee Code Annotated Section 67-5-601(a) is that "[t]he value of all property shall be ascertained from the evidence of its sound, intrinsic and immediate value, for purposes of sale between a willing seller and a willing buyer without consideration of speculative values . . ."

After having reviewed all the evidence in the case, the administrative judge finds that the subject parcels should be valued in accordance with Mr. Burks' analyses. The administrative judge finds that Mr. Burks' analyses should receive greatest weight for three reasons. First, the administrative judge finds that Mr. Burks analyzed his comparables in greater detail than did Mr. Young. The administrative judge finds that Mr. Burks found it appropriate to adjust most of his comparables whereas Mr. Young did not adjust most of his comparables. Second, Mr. Burks' comparables were not challenged. For all practical purposes, Mr. Young essentially argued that his comparables were superior and should be accorded greatest weight. Third, and most importantly, the administrative judge finds that Mr. Burks convincingly challenged all but one of Mr. Young's comparables. The administrative judge finds Mr. Burks established on rebuttal that Mr. Young's sales should be rejected because (1) they were not adjusted despite significant differences requiring adjustments; (2) or the sales occurred after January 1, 2007 and are therefore irrelevant;¹ or (3) the sales were between related parties and cannot be considered arm's length transactions.

The administrative judge finds the one sale that was not technically rebutted concerned the comparable located on Volunteer Parkway in Manchester, Tennessee. Mr. Young asserted the sale was an arm's length transaction as evidenced by the fact the Coffee County Assessor's property record card indicates the sale was "qualified." Mr. Burks, in contrast, testified he spoke with Jimmy White, the Coffee County Property Assessor, who indicated the sale was not an arm's length transaction and included a significant amount of personal property. Respectfully, the administrative judge finds that the sale cannot receive any weight given the conflicting hearsay. The administrative judge finds that additional evidence must be introduced to determine whether the sale was, in fact, an arm's length transaction.

¹ See Acme Boot Company and Ashland City Industrial Corporation (Cheatham County - Tax Year 1989) wherein the Assessment Appeals Commission ruled that "[e]vents occurring after [the assessment] date are not relevant unless offered for the limited purpose of showing that assumptions reasonably made on or before the assessment date have been borne out by subsequent events." Final Decision and Order at 3.
